

Medical Waiver

As a medical intuitive, I assess the energetic body to see imbalances in the emotional, mental, physical and spiritual areas of your life. My intention is to bring awareness to where your energies have become blocked, along with attention to any unresolved emotional issues that may be causing disharmony in your body, mind and spirit.

My consultation is intended to give you guidance and insight for your growth and wellness. As an acupuncturist, I use Oriental Medicine as my paradigm, which is based on energetic functioning. When I mention a weak organ, for example, this is referring to the energetic system associated with that organ and not the organ itself. I focus on the emotional and spiritual causes of illness and may not “see” a medical condition. I share information that I receive through personal intuitive guidance that I believe will be of value to you, the client. As we are creatures of self-determination and free will, all conditions may be subject to change. It is important to remember that there is always an element of mystery and the unknowable, especially in the arena of health.

I often recommend inner child work, individual ceremonies, diet and lifestyle changes, Qigong exercises, career options and personal life inventories. I expect clients to follow only what resonates deeply within themselves and leave the rest. There can also be certain reactions to dietary or herbal supplements, Qigong exercises or lifestyle changes. I advise clients to follow up with a health practitioner if there are any problems. I expect the client to take full personal responsibility for their health and well being, as I am only a guide in the healing process. My intention, as an intuitive consultant, is to help people empower themselves for increased health and attunement to their soul purpose.
